District Clerk's Office
Rutland, Vt. 11. April 1833

Sir:

It had escaped my observation, until a short time since, that it was my duty by law, to transmit annually to your department, a list of copy-rights secured within the Vermont District, under the act of Congress relative to that subject, approved the 3. of February, 1831. The first yearly list has been hitherto entirely omitted on my part; though it turns out, that the authors and proprietors for that period, have none of them as yet filed in my office, copies of their several publications, as by law they are required to do.

I have now the honor to transmit to you, two several Lists of Records; one for each of the years already elapsed. The first List commences with the date of the first record made under the new law.

Only one book has been lodged with me, during the second year; and that book is herewith also transmitted.

Should these Lists be in your opinion informal, or otherwise defective, may I ask you to point out the errors, in order that I may take the earliest opportunity to correct them and supply accurate ones.

I have the honor to be
Sir,

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant
